Charles Hunt

Charles Hunt is a resilience expert, former corporate leader, and the founder of The Audacity Firm, LLC, providing trauma-informed keynote speaking and programs with emphasis on building resilience, hope, and healing. Charles' intense focus, drive, and unbreakable spirit lifted him from poverty and despair while fueling his life's purpose to use his mess as a message that helps, inspires, and motivates others.

Jerry Moe

Jerry Moe, MA, retired last year as the National Director of Children's Programs at Hazelden Betty Ford. An advisory board member of the National Association for Children of Addiction (NACoA), he is an author, speaker, and consultant on issues for children and families hurt by addiction. Jerry's work is featured in the PBS documentary Lost Childhood and Emmy Award winning programs on both Nickelodeon and Sesame Street.

Tim Clue

This one of a kind plenary speaker is an award-winning writer, educator, and comic. He's performed for a former president and opened for Jerry Seinfeld. His play "Leaving Iowa" was nominated Best New Play in the Country and is performed in theaters across the U.S. and Canada. Now this transformative speaker, educator, and writer is helping reshape the way adults build culture and connection for young minds in the making.
